

Overview of the activity

Calculate your environmental footprint and take one small step to reduce your impact with WWF's Footprint Calculator.

FOOTPRINT CALCULATOR

Why do this?

“If not now, when? If not us, who?” - Winston Churchill

You are irresistible. We are irresistible. With small steps we can do almost anything we choose. Just as we have polluted our world to the point of climate chaos, we also have the resources and the knowledge to save it. It comes down to what we want for our children, what we dream of for future generations. We only have to start. It's up to all of us to fix it. Take your first step with the WWF environmental footprint calculator and start to make a difference today.
